Outreach:

ANGEL TREE CHRISTMAS:

Children are often ignored when a parent is in prison, but you can help these children be remembered this Christmas by purchasing a gift to let them know they are not forgotten by their parent or God. Angel Tree is about sharing the love of Jesus Christ and reconnecting parents and children. You can choose an Angel Tree ornament from the Christmas tree in the Gathering Space November 17-18 before or after any Mass. The ornament has all the information you'll need for shopping. Presents are given in the name of the incarcerated parent. Gifts will be collected December 1-2 before/after all Masses. Please contact Jody Burns at 574-267-6447 with any questions.

Pastor's Column:

This week please pray for the bishops during their Fall General Assembly from November 12-14. As you know, there are many serious issues that they must address after the scandals revealed this summer.

Msgr. Charles Pope of Washington, DC has a great article in the National Catholic Register titled, "A Cry of the Heart to Our Bishops: Please Restore Order to the Church!" In this article he does a great job of explaining the role of all in Holy Orders. This is a great challenge for all bishops and priests. But it is also a good thing to consider for our own parish and our own home (which is to be a "domestic church"). Thank you for your prayers for the bishops and for purification of the Church.

-Fr. Jonathan
